2014-2015: No.53

Published annually $1.50

Welcome to GardenTalk® our catalog of fine garden tools and gardening products carefully selected for our customers. Please take your time... don't chance missing a vital item!

We had a wild winter here in New England with lots of snow and frigid temperatures. It felt like the never ending winter. My 99 year old neighbor predicted a cold, snowy winter and he also predicts a hot summer. His weather predictions have never been wrong. Be prepared to do a lot of watering this summer!

I am not sure if I've ever looked forward to spring gardening more than I did this year. In addition to flowers, I am doing an organic vegetable garden in raised beds. I have planted zucchini, cucumbers, radishes, summer squash, eggplant and watermelon. I have also used our stackable planter on page 34 for strawberries this year. If you happen to be on Facebook, I'll post some pictures of the harvest there this summer. Now that my garden is planted, I can't wait to harvest and get fresh, organic veggies into my family!

Often our customers ask about the artwork on the cover of our catalog. Linda Cook DeVona is the artist. She also is the illustrator of our note cards. She has been illustrating for garden publications for many years. She lives with her family in an old farmhouse in upstate New York where she plants daffodils each Autumn as a way to celebrate the arrival of Spring.

We have added many great new tools to our catalog this year. Of course our tried and true gardening tools remain, many of which we have carried since 1967 in our very first catalog. You can place your order by phone, mail or on our secure website: www.gardentalk.com.

Enjoy the catalog and the gardening season ahead,

Rebecca

Auntie Cathy's Tomato & Bread Salad

Many of our customers grow tomatoes, and wonder what to do with an over-abundance. Beside making sauces and delighting your neighbors with tomatoes, my aunt's Tomato and Bread Salad is always a huge hit at family gatherings and goes quickly, so don't be afraid to double the recipe. Enjoy!

1 Loaf of fresh Italian bread; cubed and toasted in the oven for 20 minutes at 350° until lightly browned

2-3 Cups of tomatoes (Cut into bite size chunks or use cherry or grape tomatoes) – use more if you have a bountiful harvest

½ Cup fresh basil, chopped

½ Cup onion sliced thin

½ Cup Extra Virgin Olive Oil (EVOO)

2 Tablespoons of red wine vinegar

(You can substitute Italian Dressing for the EVOO and Vinegar)

½ TSP salt

½ TSP pepper

1 Minced clove of garlic

Add your choice of cheese (feta, blue, goat, or shaved parmesan) to taste

In a large bowl combine the toasted bread, tomatoes, basil & onion.

In a small bowl, whisk the remaining ingredients, except the cheese. Drizzle the dressing over the bread and tomatoes, toss and let stand for 20 minutes.

Just before serving add the cheese.

HOES

Oscillating Hoe

Called by many names: Stirrup Hoe, Appalachia Hoe, Hula Hoe, etc., this classic design garden tool should be in your collection. Great for small to medium size weeds. The stirrup shaped blade is sharpened on both sides, so it cuts roots just under the topsoil on the push and pull stroke. The blade angle and the 54" hardwood handle allow you to stand practically straight, so it is easier on the back. A weeding tool used by market gardener professionals. Blade is 6 1/4" w x 5" h x 1 1/4". Excellent quality for a terrific price. Oscillating Hoe ..... $29.95

Grape Hoe

A heavy duty "eye hoe", the grape hoe is traditionally used in the stoney hill-side vineyards of Europe. The sturdy arched hardwood handle is shorter (42") than most other hoes because, unlike a draw hoe, it is typically used for close-up heavy work. The curved shape and oval cross section of the handle prevent it from twisting in your hands during use. The blade is 7" wide with an overall height of 10". A serious weeding and cultivation tool for stoney and hard clay soil. Grape Hoe ..... $69.95

GOOSENECK HOE

In between!

No weed can hide from these light, easy-to-use hoes. Reach in to cultivate tight spots. Reach to the back, front, and in-between. Three working edges: two 3" edges and the half inch wide point ...all very sharp. Made in USA. Writes a customer: "You couldn't buy back the gooseneck hoes you sold me!"

55" long $28.95

Solving Weed Problems

Peter Loewer, author and illustrator of more than 30 beautiful and informative gardening books provides this elegantly illustrated guide to identifying and eliminating weeds. To understand how to eliminate weeds, Mr. Loewer provides the reader with information on pollination, weed seed germination, how weed get here, why they continue to survive. He also tells us how to effectively use herbicides (chemical and organic), when to call the extension service and when just plain hard work will do the trick. A book every gardener should have in his or her reference library.

Solving Weed Problems..... $14.95

Weeders....

THE IDEAL WEEDER

is a real old-timer. Also known as a "hot bed weeder", it has a  $\frac{3}{4}$ " wide blade that is well sharpened on all of its edges including the tip. Use the tip to "pick" out small weeds in close spaces, or select from inches of sharp, straight and curved edges for your weeding and cultivating chores. This versatile tool is truly one of the best and made in USA.

Ideal Weeder $27.95, or $29.95 with a Gardener's Grip

FISH TAIL WEEDER & ASPARAGUS KNIFE

Hammer forged from tool steel, this weeder is hardened and tempered to withstand rough usage. The notched blade is well sharpened and wider ( $1\frac{1}{2}$ ") than other asparagus knives. Manufactured since 1826, this tried-and-true quality garden tool is 15" long. Made in USA.

$27.95 each, or $29.95 with a Gardener's Grip

JAPANESE WEEDING KNIFE

A generally useful tool for a variety of garden chores like weeding, cultivating, making holes for planting, splitting flats of seedlings, cutting garden line, plastic mulch etc. Heavy steel blade with semi-sharp beveled edges, hardwood handle, overall length 10"

Japanese Weeder Knife $37.50

THE WEEDER/ROOTER

or "Gold Digger" out of the West. A life-time quality garden tool that removes every nuisance weed from every type of surface.

The one end is a sort of mattock that will chop tough or woody weeds at or below ground level.

The steel teeth on the other end will sink into the roots or crown of a weed and allow you to pry it from the soil. Use it too, for digging small holes for bulbs or plants and to break up hard ground. Powdercoat steel handle with a cushion grip. 15" long, head 7" x 2". Weighs about 1.5 lb. Made in Mexico. Weeder/Rooter $27.95

no more sore hands!

What are Gardener's Grips?... Soft textured, durable, non-slip grips that help prevent blisters and even insulate from cold. They slide onto your tool handles in seconds using the supplied packet of "Lube'n Glue". Give your hands a break. You'll never want to stop weeding.

Available separately in two diameters, one for  $\frac{3}{4}$ " handles and one for 1" handles. They will stretch a bit to accommodate a slightly larger shaft. Both are 8" long, but can be easily cut for tools with shorter grips. Grab-on-Grips \$2.50each or two for \$4.50 (please specify diameter,  $\frac{3}{4}$ " or 1").

The Magic Weeder

A tried and true design that has been a favorite in New England for over 80 years, the "magical" part of a three-tined weeder is that it pulls weeds out rather than cutting them off. At the same time, it loosens and aerates the soil around your plants. The carbon steel tines have a little spring and are securely set in a red oak handle. Overall length is 12". Magic Weeder $22.50

Asian Hand Cultivator

A hand forged gardening tool from Korea with an interesting, and very useful blade design. It has a wooden handle and a 7" steel blade that is curved and tapered to resemble a small plow. Excellent for opening and closing furrows, digging, and cultivating. A multi-purpose hand tool, wonderful for working in flower and vegetable beds. Asian Cultivator $22.95 each, or $24.95 with a Gardener's Grip

Potting Knife

The potting knife makes the job of separating the roots from the pot easier, and we have discovered many other jobs. The stainless steel blade has serrated teeth and is flexible! Slide the blade down the inside edge of the pot and work the roots free. Then use the flexible blade to shear and shape the root ball. Especially designed for orchids, but is appropriate for all other potted plants. Great for flower window boxes and planters of all sizes. Made in Japan. The blade is 7½" long and 1¼" wide tapering to ½" and rounded at the tip. Overall length is 15½". Potting Knife $32.95

CobraHead Weeder/Cultivator

This is truly a heavy duty gardening tool. The 8" handle is a composite of recycled polypropylene and recycled wood fiber. It is stronger than wood or plastic. FANNO No. 4 PRUNING SAW

Made in USA

Several years ago, we had a chance to visit with a customer of ours who teaches Tree Pruning courses for the Massachusetts Horticultural Society. One thing he told us is that he requires all of his students to buy a pair of Felco No. 8 (or No.9) pruners and a Fanno No.4 Pruning Saw. He'd been sending his students to us to buy the Felco's and ask us if we'd stock some Fanno No. 4 saws for them as well. "In fact," he said, "you really should add it to your catalog ..it is the very best all around pruning saw available. The blade's the right length, teeth are the right size, and you can get two hands on the grip. Everyone pruning trees should have one!" ...So here it is. FANNO No. 4 Saw (13" blade, 6 teeth/inch, 11" handle) $39.50

AUTHENTIC SUSSEX TRUGS

*From The Original Makers of
The Royal Sussex Trug Basket.*

Trug comes from the old English word "trog", meaning boat-like. The "modern" trug gardening basket was developed sometime around 1850 in the small town of Herstmonceux in East Sussex. To this day, Sussex trugs are made entirely by hand. The trug has a simple frame made of two squarish cornered hoops of sweet chestnut. The chestnut laths are hand split and shaped with a draw knife and heated in a wood fired steamer until they become pliable enough to bend around the frame forms. Once formed, the frames are securely nailed together. Carefully hand shaped split willow slats are then pressed in place within the frame, and each overlapping slat is fastened to the frame with copper nails. Sussex trugs are very light weight and long lasting, some are still in use after 100 years. Wonderful for cut flowers or your garden produce; lovely for indoor use and for special gift baskets as well.

The story goes that Queen Victoria, at the Hyde Park Exposition in 1851, greatly admired the trug and ordered a number of them, which the maker delivered personally, making the 60 mile journey to Buckingham Palace on foot, pushing the trugs in a wheelbarrow!

For the sake of expediency, and to save wear and tear on our company president, we will deliver a trug of your very own by UPS.

Guy Wolff Garden Pottery

Guy Wolff has been making traditional pottery for over 30 years. He has kept alive the best traditions of 18th and 19th century pottery for the garden, at times blending contemporary designs with traditional forms. Guy's work is in the collections of many prestigious estates, including Monticello, the New York Botanical Gardens, the Atlanta History Museum, even the White House. He has also been featured in numerous publications including the New York Times, Horticulture Magazine, and Martha Stewart Living.

Guy's studio is located in a small rustic barn in western Connecticut, where according to Guy, Mary Pickford's and Douglas Fairbanks' horses were once kept. The studio space is small and production directly from Guy's hands is very limited and highly sought after by collectors and estates. Normally, every pot Guy makes is sold from the studio or directly to estate customers or collectors. We are extremely proud that Guy Wolff has offered to make a limited number of pots for our customers.

PealePots

The Peale Pot was inspired by the 1802 portrait of Rubens Peale with Geranium, painted by Rembrandt Peale. It is said the pot in the portrait contains one of the first specimens of geranium (Pelargonium) brought to America. This is a classic 18th century shape, with a bead of roping just under the rim. In terra-cotta, it is available in three sizes.

#2 Peale Pot 5½"H x 6½" Rim x 4" Base .....$28.00

#4 Peale Pot 7¼"H x 8" Rim x 5" Base .....$49.00

#6 Peale Pot 8½"H x 9½" Rim x 6" Base .....$65.00

About Sizes

Each piece of Guy Wolff Garden Pottery is stamped with a number (2, 4, 6 etc), indicating the "wet weight" pounds of clay used to make the pot. This standardized system for horticultural pots was adopted by Victorian potters. Guy is a skilled potter and his work is remarkably consistent, but keep in mind that the pots are hand thrown and no two are exactly alike. Approximate dimensions are given as Height x Outside Diameter at the Rim x Outside Diameter at the Bottom.

About Quality

All Wolff pottery in our catalog is hand thrown by Guy Wolff and signed on the bottom. In other catalogs and on the internet, you may find garden pottery produced by the Guy Wolff Guild. It will be labeled as "G. Wolff & Co.". While it is fine quality pottery, it is made by a guild of craftsman in Wisconsin and Honduras, trained by Guy Wolff, and produced to meet the demands of a larger market. The pottery in our catalog is from Guy Wolff's own wheel. It is marked simple "G. WOLFF" and is available in very limited quantities.

Grids for delicate plants

Perennials get bigger each year! Made in the Netherlands, Peacock garden supports are designed to grow with your plants throughout the season and from year to year. All support rings and stakes are completely interchangeable and made of very heavy-gauge green vinyl coated galvanized steel. Except for the grid style rings, they can be put in place at any time of the year without damaging the plants.

- Start with small ring on a single stake, as the plant grows taller, slide the coupler up the stake to raise the ring, or add an additional ring and coupler above the first. Stakes come in lengths from 30 to 70 inches tall!!

- As a plant grows outward, change to a larger diameter ring by simply slipping the smaller ring out of the coupler and replacing it with a larger ring. Ring are available in diameters of 2 to 15 inches.

- When a plant grows too large for a 15 inch ring, use two stakes and two half-circle arms to make an 18, 21, or 25 inch circle.

- For even larger plants, use three stakes and three third-circle arms to make a 32 inch ring.

- The 40 inch long Scalloped Border Edging is a very neat way of preventing border plants from flopping on the lawn or walkway. Furthermore, they can be raised as the plants grow or raised to lift back the plants when you cut the grass.

The flies zip to the yellow and wind up in the "sticky" ...like flies to fly-paper. Hang strips near your plants. Use indoors, in the greenhouse, on patios, and in the garden.
